NEWARK INDIANS WILL TRAIN IN THE NORTH

International League Players to Prepare for Season at "Bill" Brown's, Opposite West Point, N. Y.

HARD COURSE IS PROPOSED

Athletes Will Be Put Through Severe Workouts to Condition Them for Opening of Campaign—Other Magnates Will Watch Innovation.

NEWARK, December 28.—Charles H. Ebbetts, Jr., president of the Newark Indians, of the International League, will try a new scheme next spring for training his athletes of the diamond. Charles is almost as full of tricks as his fond papa, who is president of the Brooklyn National League.

Young Charles is going to take his Indians North instead of South. The going South thing to get warm weather reached its ultimate conclusion two years ago, when the New Orleans team went to Panama to train. Charles Junior was thinking of taking the Indians to Punta Arenas, at the tip end of Argentine, but figured it would be too expensive, hence his about-face for the chilly North.

The Indians will train at Bill Brown's place at Garrison, opposite West Point, fifty-nine miles north of Ebbetts Field. That will be an innovation, but it's a cold day when Bill Brown can't whip an athlete into condition.

It will be cold considerably, probably, when the Indians report there about three weeks before the opening of the International League campaign, but that will not interfere with strengthening their backs and sharpening their eyes.

Brother Brown is a strenuous trainer of even fat men of sedentary habits, and what he may be expected to do with persons who only need a little hard work and a reduction of flesh may be imagined. He will force them to long rides, so they will have the fun of walking back.

Will go on Long Walks. He will take them on long walks and let them walk back some more, and show to be not prejudiced in favor of horses. He will put them through an hour of sprouts every morning in the gym before breakfast.

He will give them more work in the gym and more road work, and when the day's toll is over he will send them to bed at 9 o'clock to sleep with open windows, carrying the pleasant thought that they will arrive at Spring training in a liquid splendor of the North Pole, which he designates as a shower bath. There will be a room for light practice, and there is ample room for the batteries to limber up. The field will also be able to throw as much as they like, and that will be about all. The real baseballing will be postponed until the Indians return to the South in the spring.

The campaign starts and ends in a day of exhibition games. The schedule is set for the first of March, and the Indians will be in the South by the first of April.
